Chapter 4 Meetings of the Committee

Clause 19 Meetings of the Committee can be classified as regular meeting and extraordinary meeting.

Clause 20 The Committee shall hold at least one regular meeting every quarter, and the notice of the meeting shall be served to all members three days before such meeting.

Clause 21 Extraordinary meetings may be convened on the proposal of two or more members of the Committee, or when the chairman of the Committee deems it necessary. In any of the following circumstances, the chairman of the Committee shall issue a notice to convene a meeting within three days:

- (1) in circumstances as deemed necessary by the chairman of the Committee;
- (2) when proposed by two or more members of the Committee.

Clause 22 If the Committee convenes a meeting, the Company shall, in principle, provide relevant materials and information no later than three days prior to the Committee meeting. The Secretary of the Committee shall issue the notice of meeting in writing to each of the Committee members and relevant persons being invited to attend the meeting three days prior to the date of the meeting (except in special circumstances where the requirement of a prior notice is exempted, provided that the chairman of the meeting shall provide explanation at the meeting). The notice of meeting shall contain information on the form, time, venue, duration and agenda of the meeting, time of issuance of the notice, name and contact information of the contact person of the meeting and other relevant information.

The audit, finance and legal departments and the Secretary of the Committee shall prepare and furnish the Committee with relevant materials related to the matters to be discussed, and liaise with the parties involved (including external professionals, specialists, scholars and intermediaries appointed by the Committee during a meeting).

Clause 23 Upon receipt of the notice, all Committee members shall promptly provide confirmation and relevant replies (including but not limited to the confirmation of attendance and other arrangement) via a proper means.

Clause 24 All members of the Committee shall attend the meeting in person. If a member is unable to attend the meeting in person, such member shall, by signing and submitting a letter of proxy, authorize another member of the Committee to attend and express opinion at the meeting on his/her behalf. Such letter of proxy shall expressly state the scope and term of the authorization. Each member may appoint only one other member as his/her proxy to exercise the voting right on his/her behalf. Where a member authorizes two or more other members to exercise the voting right on his/her behalf, such authorization shall be invalid. No member shall accept such authorization from two or more other members concurrently.

The member attending a meeting on behalf of another member shall exercise the rights within the scope of authorization. If a member does not attend a meeting in person or authorize another member to exercise the rights on his/her behalf, nor does he/she submit any opinion in writing prior to the meeting, he/she shall be deemed to have waived his/her rights.

A member who is unable to attend a meeting in person may also exercise his/her rights by submitting in writing his/her opinion with respect to any matter on the meeting agenda, provided that such written opinion shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Committee before the meeting.

Clause 25 If a member does not attend a meeting in person or authorize another member to attend such meeting on his/her behalf, nor does he/she submit any opinion in writing prior to the meeting on two consecutive occasions, or if such member fails to attend in person 3/4 of all meetings of the Committee held during any year, such member shall be deemed incapable of performing the duties of the Committee, and the board of directors may replace him/her in accordance with these Terms.

Clause 26 The quorum of a Committee meeting shall be the presence of two thirds of the Committee members. Meetings of the Committee shall be presided over by the chairman of the Committee, who may appoint another member to act on his/her behalf when he/she is unable to attend the meeting. If the chairman of the Committee neither performs his/her duties nor designates another member to act on his/her behalf, any member may report the same to the board of directors, and the board of directors shall appoint another member who is an independent non-executive director to fulfil the duties of the chairman.

Chapter 5 Procedures of Meetings

- Clause 27 Each member of the Committee shall have one vote. A resolution of the meeting shall be passed by a simple majority of the votes of all members. In the event that the meeting fails to reach a valid resolution due to abstention of any member, the relevant matter shall be considered directly by the board of directors.
- Clause 28 Meetings of the Committee shall be held in the form of on-site meetings in general, and voting shall be conducted by a show of hands or by poll. Under the premise of ensuring that all participating members can fully communicate and express their opinions, if necessary, the meetings may be held by video, telephone or other means in accordance with the procedures, and in the case of adopting the aforesaid means, the members of the Committee shall submit to the board of directors written opinions on the items to be discussed within the period of time required by the notice of the meeting.
- Clause 29 All items on the agenda shall be discussed during the meeting of the Committee, and the Committee members shall explicitly, independently and fully express their opinions based on their own judgment. In the case of any different opinions, such different opinions shall be stated in the meeting minutes to be presented to the board of directors.
- Clause 30 The Committee may invite directors, related senior management members and relevant experts of the Company, external experts, scholars, intermediary agencies and other persons to sit in on a meeting. Such persons being invited shall give explanation and elaboration on any issues as required by any Committee member.
- Clause 31 Where necessary, the Committee may, upon approval by the board of directors, seek for professional advices of external professional personnel or organizations. Any reasonable cost so incurred shall be borne by the Company.
- Clause 32 If a member of the Committee is interested in any matter being considered by the Committee, such member shall abstain from voting of such matter.
- Clause 33 All persons attending the Committee meetings shall keep all matters discussed at the meetings confidential and shall not disclose any such information without authorization.

Chapter 6 Minutes and Summary of the Committee Meetings

Clause 34 Minutes shall be kept for all meetings of the Committee, which shall be prepared by the Secretary of the Committee and shall contain the following information:

- (1) serial number, form, date, venue and name of the chairman of the meeting;
- (2) attendance of members in person and by proxy;
- (3) name and title of each attendee;
- (4) agenda of the meeting;
- (5) main points made by the Committee members and other relevant attendees;
